

1. CPC Committee Members present: Lanell Lua, Kathy Hollingsworth, Elizabeth Bonnell, Sarah Kay, Tristan Rice, Brian Ogawa
Community members present: Crystal Schiszler, Eric Guttorman, and Desmon Haumea
2. Committee discussion and vote on CPC mission statement and Chair and Secretary
Desmon Haumea discussed the importance of the inclusion of all of Hawaii's cultures in the CPC mission statement and the significance of the committee in the community.
The committee agreed to include "Hawaii's Culture" in the CPC mission statement to increase cultural inclusiveness in the committee's mission.
The committee discussed and agreed on the inclusion of non HPPOA members in the committee's meetings as culturally significant and important to the committee.
Quorum of the committee present. Committee vote on mission statement "To protect and preserve the previously recorded archaeological sites zoned HPPOA from further development without membership approval and to perpetuate cultural awareness and education of Hawaii's culture."
Vote: Yes-5. The committee voted yes.
Committee voted on Chair and Secretary. Committee member Sarah Kay volunteered to be CPC Chair. vote: Yes-5. The committee voted yes.
Committee voted on Secretary. Committee member Michael Schiszler was nominated by the committee for Secretary. vote: Yes-5. The committee voted yes.
3. Announcements:
CPC Chair Sarah Kay will provide an oral committee report including the committee mission statement at the upcoming General Membership Meeting Sunday June 26th, 2022.
The next CPC meeting is scheduled for Saturday, July 23rd, 2022. The proposed cultural ethnographers site survey of the previously recorded archaeological site will be discussed.
The formation of a non-profit to help protect and preserve the site will also be discussed by the committee.